Be the envy of all your guests

A bevy of designers, seamstresses, painters and inventors, are taking the humble apron to a new level. Unique, individually dreamed, themed and seamed aprons have arrived in Sydney.

Who can resist an apron for holding pegs, a ukulele apron, an apron that is a spice rack, or an apron made of doileys? An apron dedicated to the Country Women's Association, a mid wife's apron, tropical aprons made of vintage fabrics, corrugated iron, embroidered place mats and more are being stitched, trimmed and ironed for this fun, slightly old fashioned exhibition.

Tea by Mouse

You no longer need to take your apron off when the doorbell rings. These aprons are conversation starters at any dinner party.

The Great Apron Show is taking the apron by the strings and hanging it on the gallery walls to be admired as well as styled, to be unique as well as useful.
